

Escape to the mountains...

Two years ago I realized a dream. As a clergy person, I know how hard it is to get away to rest, relax, study, or simply find renewal. I began to search for a property that was private, well-appointed, peaceful, and offered a versatile floor plan to accommodate either a single guest or several, for prayer, rest, study, and relaxation. The Sanctuary at Bald Mountain is the realization of that dream. I hope you will come and experience this wonderful place.

May God's peace restore you there.

Three years ago, I had the dream of creating a peaceful, serene, relaxing place for clergy and lay persons to come to renew, rest, and vision for their ministries, and a place where they could hold covenant meetings, staff retreats, and find the space to connect with God in the beauty of the North Georgia mountains. I finally found that place – The Sanctuary at Bald Mountain .

The Sanctuary at Bald Mountain is located in Hiawassee, Georgia, in the beautiful North Georgia mountains, just 5 minutes from Lake Chatuge, on over 1 acre of private, wooded mountaintop.

The residence covers 3 floors, with a full bath on each floor, full kitchen on the top and terrace levels, and a kitchenette with microwave and full-size refrigerator on the middle level. There are 6 bedrooms, two on the top floor (each with full size beds), three on the middle floor (one with sleeper sofa, the other two with queen beds), and one on the terrace level (with a queen bed). There are also sofa beds in the living areas of both the top and terrace levels, bringing the total number of beds to nine. On the terrace level, there is a small library of study and devotional materials as well as resources for sermon preparation.

There are two porch swings, numerous benches and outdoor seating areas, a gas grill, and gorgeous mountain views all year round. Hiking, fishing, boating, mountain biking, and excellent restaurants are nearby. Brasstown Bald is visible from the property, and the charming town of Helen is only 25 minutes away. Or you can simply relax on the many decks and enjoy the abundant wildlife.

There is an excellent grocery store in “downtown” Hiawassee (an Ingles with a huge selection of organic items as well as traditional grocery products) less than ten minutes from the cabin.

Quiet, private, peaceful.

The Sanctuary at Bald Mountain has hosted leadership and renewal retreats for churches and individuals. Here are some recent comments from our guest book:

“As a youth pastor I just want to let you guys know that we were totally blessed this weekend. When we first arrived I knew that this would be a place that the presence of God was welcomed. Our students were able to reconnect with their Creator on this trip. They were able to rekindle their passion for the things of God. Thank you for opening this place for people like us. I pray that the Lord would greatly bless you.”

“The beds were comfy, and also the couch! Kitchen is awesome to cook with. We just want to thank you for all that you do to make a wonderful place for us all to stay in. Thank you so much and God bless you!”

“J” Outbreak Ministries

“Talk about being in “Almost Heaven” – forget West Virginia – this is it! We so appreciate your hospitality and the supreme gift of renewal!! Dr. P.

“Saying ‘thank you’ would truly be an understatement. This place was truly a blessing to us.” C. & S. M.

I hope you will consider The Sanctuary at Bald Mountain for a pastoral study or renewal retreat, staff retreat, small group retreat, or just a time for you and your family to get away.
